

*At chance to mix fun,
faith and friends every Friday.*

Aug. 27, Welcome Back Dinner
Find out what we've got planned for the semester over a home-cooked spaghetti dinner at the IFC. All faculty, students and staff are welcome to come!*

Sep. 3, BBQ on the Patio:
Camping Retreat Send-Off
Enjoy a Friday cookout just outside the IFC and mingle with a few of your adventurous classmates before their weekend getaway.*

Sep. 10, "Drive-In" Movie Night:
Your Life is Calling
Will you be the next Patch Adams? Mr. Holland? Join us at the IFC (outside if the weather's nice) and we'll talk about our vocational callings over popcorn and a movie.*

Sep. 17, Milkshake and Game Night:
First Year Celebration
One of our classic, favorite events at the IFC. First-years are particularly encouraged to come and talk to upperclassmen about their take on the college life, whether that means how to keep the faith alive or getting cramming tips for CHEM 105!*

* The InterFaith Center ("IFC") sits between the Church of the Covenant and the Hillel Foundation, between Euclid Avenue and the Mather Quad

Thank God It's Friday!

Hosted by the Newman Catholic Student Association:
Contact Liz Palmer at exp69@case.edu with any questions!

*At chance to mix fun,
faith and friends every Friday.*

Aug. 27, Welcome Back Dinner
Find out what we've got planned for the semester over a home-cooked spaghetti dinner at the IFC. All faculty, students and staff are welcome to come!*

Sep. 3, BBQ on the Patio:
Camping Retreat Send-Off
Enjoy a Friday cookout just outside the IFC and mingle with a few of your adventurous classmates before their weekend getaway.*

Sep. 10, "Drive-In" Movie Night:
Your Life is Calling
Will you be the next Patch Adams? Mr. Holland? Join us at the IFC (outside if the weather's nice) and we'll talk about our vocational callings over popcorn and a movie.*

Sep. 17, Milkshake and Game Night:
First Year Celebration
One of our classic, favorite events at the IFC. First-years are particularly encouraged to come and talk to upperclassmen about their take on the college life, whether that means how to keep the faith alive or getting cramming tips for CHEM 105!*

* The InterFaith Center ("IFC") sits between the Church of the Covenant and the Hillel Foundation, between Euclid Avenue and the Mather Quad

Thank God It's Friday!

Hosted by the Newman Catholic Student Association:
Contact Liz Palmer at exp69@case.edu with any questions!

*At chance to mix fun,
faith and friends every Friday.*

Aug. 27, Welcome Back Dinner
Find out what we've got planned for the semester over a home-cooked spaghetti dinner at the IFC. All faculty, students and staff are welcome to come!*

Sep. 3, BBQ on the Patio:
Camping Retreat Send-Off
Enjoy a Friday cookout just outside the IFC and mingle with a few of your adventurous classmates before their weekend getaway.*

Sep. 10, "Drive-In" Movie Night:
Your Life is Calling
Will you be the next Patch Adams? Mr. Holland? Join us at the IFC (outside if the weather's nice) and we'll talk about our vocational callings over popcorn and a movie.*

Sep. 17, Milkshake and Game Night:
First Year Celebration
One of our classic, favorite events at the IFC. First-years are particularly encouraged to come and talk to upperclassmen about their take on the college life, whether that means how to keep the faith alive or getting cramming tips for CHEM 105!*

* The InterFaith Center ("IFC") sits between the Church of the Covenant and the Hillel Foundation, between Euclid Avenue and the Mather Quad

Thank God It's Friday!

Hosted by the Newman Catholic Student Association:
Contact Liz Palmer at exp69@case.edu with any questions!